

2012 Technology Webinars

Presented by the

NRCS East National Technology Support Center

January 25 – Stream Habitat Management: Assessing Stream Condition

February 29 – Essential Principles for Conservation Planning on Pastures

March 28 – Nutrient Management in No-till Cropping Systems

April 25 – Common Bees and Best Bee Plants of the East

May 30 – Sensor-based Irrigation Water Management - Scheduling

June 27 – Management of Manure Nutrients

July 25 – River Science (Hydrology and Fluvial Geomorphology) for Non-engineers

August 29 – Design of Silage Leachate Collection and Treatment Systems

September 26 – Using the Leaching Index in RUSLE2 (and other Risk Assessments) for Nutrient Management

October 31 – Conservation Tree/Shrub Suitability Groups: A Tool for Matching Woody Plants to Soils

November 28 – Manure to Energy: Thermal conversion (Combustion, Gasification, Pyrolysis) of Animal Manures and Biomass

Happy Holidays! – The Science of Conservation - We Deliver!

*Topics selected using NRCS employee survey; calendar order does not reflect topic ranking

Kicks off grazing lands mini-series of high ranking topics, schedule TBD

Kicks off soil-plant-water interactions mini-series of high ranking and special topics, schedule TBD

Join numbers/links for audio/video released approximately 2-3 weeks prior to each event. Join our announcement list.